The Bancroft School Early Intervention Program

Bancroft's Early Intervention Program provides educational and therapeutic services for children birth to three years of age with developmental disabilities/delays or other related disorders. Services are provided primarily in Camden County, in natural environments including homes, day care centers, nursery schools and community settings. Specialized programs and therapies are also available for children with autism spectrum disorders and are designed to meet individual child and family needs. Services are offered in early mornings, late afternoons, evenings and on weekends for families who desire a flexible schedule.

Services Include:

- Play Groups
- Music Groups
- Special Education
- Physical Therapy
- Occupational Therapy
- Speech Therapy
- Sensory Integration
- Behavior Therapy
- Family Training
- Parent Training
- Support Groups
- Goal and Objective Development
- Social Work
- Individual and Group Counseling
- Transitions to Public and Private School Settings

Program Description

The Bancroft Early Intervention Program offers educational and therapeutic services to help children achieve developmental milestones.

Mission Statement

Bancroft's mission is to ensure that every person is given opportunities for lifelong learning and fulfillment.

We do this by altering perceptions, and by supporting those with intellectual and developmental challenges and acquired brain injuries in achieving their life goals as valued and respected members of our world.

Program Leadership

Sharon I. Jurman
Senior Director of Early Childhood and Outreach Services
