One world. For everyone.

About Bancroft

Bancroft is a leading provider of services that help people with neurological challenges reach their full potential for independent, fulfilling and productive lives. We are nationally renowned for our highly effective, individualized services based on scientifically validated, best practices in our field.

Our Mission

Bancroft's mission is to ensure that every person is given opportunities for life-long learning and fulfillment.

We do this by altering perceptions, and by supporting those with intellectual and developmental challenges and acquired brain injuries in achieving their life goals as valued and respected members of our world.

"His improvement has been remarkable... Naturally he had to work hard to achieve his success, but it was enabled and driven by Bancroft staff members who worked with him. Each of them played a special role in his rehabilitation."

– Ronald & Kathleen White

"He is in a great program that works hard on his goals and gave him a chance at a job where he has been successful. We are so happy to see him happy."

– Joe & Betsey Smetona
