Mission

Bancroft's mission is to ensure that every person is given opportunities for lifelong learning and fulfillment.

We do this by altering perceptions, and by supporting those with intellectual and developmental challenges and acquired brain injuries in achieving their life goals as valued and respected members of our world.

Core Values

Respect
Empathy
Support
Pride
Effectiveness
Connections
Teamwork

RESPECT encompasses an array of attributes that clearly define who we are at Bancroft. It is our core value that helps unify the organization around our brand essence and provides the framework for supports and services, decision-making and working together.

Respect is the clearly defined value that helps unify the organization and provide a framework for services, decision-making and working together.

L.E.A.R.N.

The Life Enrichment and Recreational Network provides educational, cultural, and recreational courses and activities for individuals served by Bancroft who are 18 and older. These courses and activities are intended to increase intellectual, physical and socialization skills as well as promote leisure, independence and personal enjoyment through participation in the program. All classes are held at the Jacob Schaefer Center unless otherwise stated.

Participants can choose from a variety of classes in areas such as creative arts, fun and fitness, healthy cooking, hobbies and leisure, musical arts, and personal development. Also included in the network are social events, club activities and Special Olympics opportunities.
